95 William St, Buderim

A view you will never grow tired of – with a potential income stream as well!

Our present owners have loved every minute of living in this beautiful home for the past 17 years. They have never ceased being thankful for the incredible view they awake to every morning and marvel at every afternoon when they return home. The 270-degree view is truly amazing – across expanses of magnificent forest to the world-famous Glasshouse Mountains and the majestic Blackall Range. The breathtaking vista even affords ocean glimpses to those fortunate enough to witness one of Buderim's best views. The home itself is filled with character and is truly unique and inviting. It sits atop a massive 1,334 square metres of fertile Buderim land with an abundance of flourishing fruit trees to reward its lucky owners with a bountiful harvest year after year, and the prestigious Island View Court as it neighbour. An excellent, fully self-contained area with its own entrance downstairs would be ideal for Airbnb, bed and breakfast and the like. Or it would make a perfect granny flat, teen
